Release No. 20-008
Mar. 25, 2020

HURLBURT FIELD REDUCES COMMISSARY HOURS IN RESPONSE TO COVID-19

HURLBURT FIELD, Fla. – Hurlburt Field officials released updated hours and closures for base facilities, to include the commissary, which will be in effect March 25, 2020, until further notice.

The reduction of hours coincides with other on-base facilities moving to a shortened schedule or closure in response to COVID-19 concerns. These actions serve as the base's effort to limit the spread of the virus.

The Hurlburt Field commissary will now reserve the duty day, during the week for active duty members and their families, with the last two hours each day open to all patrons. The first hour on both Saturday and Sunday is reserved for retirees, ages 65 and older, with the remainder of those days open to all patrons. The new hour are as follows:

- Tuesday, Thursday and Friday: 0900-1700 Active Duty and Dependents only, 1700-1900 all patrons
- Wednesday: 0900-1600 Active duty and Dependents only, 1600-1800 all patrons
- Saturday: 0900-1000 Retirees Only, 65 years and older, 1000-1800 all patrons
- Sunday: 1000-1100 Retirees Only, 65 years and older, 1100-1700 all patrons
